The market growth is propelled by the inclination towards healthy food products that offer healthfulness. Table sauces offer a portable, convenient, and inventive way to consume on-the-go healthy food products, generally with premium, indulgent and exotic products.

Table sauces refer to a preparation that is added to food, typically after cooking, to impart a specific flavour, to enhance the flavour, or to complement the dish. Certain sauces are using prior to serving while some are used during cooking.

They have become a part of the daily diet across countries, hence generating high their demand.

Globalization and increase in travel have persuaded people to experience new tastes and cultures. This cross-cultural interaction has led to a widespread adoption of foreign foods and table sauces, especially in the emerging countries, which acts as one of the major driving forces of the sauces industry.

Furthermore, with growing health consciousness among consumers, the demand for “clean”, “free from” and “natural” table sauces has gained high traction. Manufacturers are thereby introducing table sauces using natural ingredients that are minimally processed.

Furthermore, the popularity of vegan diets as a lifestyle choice is growing tremendously among consumers owing to health, environmental, and ethical reasons. As a result, plant-based table sauces are gaining substantial recognition.

This offers great potential and opportunity for manufacturers to introduce novel table sauces for market growth and expansion.
