COHASSET, MA, UNITED STATES, December 12, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Life Flashes: A Memoir- Timeless literary journey-national, local, personal, and animal figures- universal themes.

Life is truly about who one is internally amid continually changing circumstances. All relationships are precious, all relationships are limited, all relationships end. All relationships endure"

Merrie H. Reagan

Released in a second edition, Life Flashes: A Memoir is a unique, stimulating, and thought-provoking work that was written in diary form over fourteen years-2007 to 2021- under pen name Merrie H. Reagan. It is a genre bending combination of biography, history, memoir, and spiritual commentary.

Brief Summary

The book entails author interactions with national, local, personal, and animal figures. It is an account of recovery beyond illness, unemployment, and broken relationships. It is testament demonstrating that Divine love remains amid and beyond life circumstances. While being written, the book manuscript was regularly sprinkled with good humor.
