combination of Health Advocates Network’s experienced management team and deeper resources will allow for expanded career opportunities for both the Medical Temps, Inc. field and internal staff as well as geographic expansion into Texas and Arkansas. I am delighted to hand off my legacy to the seasoned team at Health Advocates Network.”

“Sarah and her team are long-time participants in our industry with an excellent reputation,” said Kevin Little, CEO, Health Advocates Network. “Sarah was a front-runner in emphasizing nursing quality as demonstrated by the fact that, in 2005, Medical Temps was one of the first Louisiana nurse staffing agencies to earn Joint Commission certification."

"Our partnership with Sarah continues to scale Health Advocates' nursing presence and expands our growing corrections staffing business," said Eddie Albert, Director of M&A, Health Advocates Network. "Our acquisition pipeline remains robust and we look forward to closing additional acquisitions in the near future."

The MTI transaction marks the seventh acquisition by Health Advocates Network since inception in 2020 and third in the fourth quarter of 2024. The company continues to gain market recognition by executing its long-term business plan through a combination of organic initiatives and scale strategic acquisitions. In August, Health Advocates Network was recognized as #300 on the 2024 Inc. 5000 fastest-growing private companies in America.
