Author's Perspective

"In Defense of Freedom" by Craig Alyn

Some Americans naively ask, “If freedom is free, then why do we have to fight for it?” It’s because evil is ever-present in humanity. That’s why we must always be vigilant, especially for evil that comes from within.

He adds:

The goal of seeking freedom is the overriding trend of humankind. It’s an underlying and immutable force of human nature. Yet, facts don’t lie—denial does. We must choose to either think logically and rationally or risk being trapped in delusion.
