is all about. By combining Cirrus's powerful digital exam platform with TEAMCo's adaptable pop-up test centre services, organisations now have a complete solution for managing exams anywhere, anytime.

Cirrus Assessment is transforming the way organisations deliver high-stakes exams. With a platform designed to make exams easier to create, manage, and deliver, Cirrus gives educational and professional institutions the tools they need to build meaningful assessments - whether it's flexible question types, automated scoring, or a wide range of integrations. At its core, Cirrus is all about helping their partners keep things running smoothly so they can focus on what really matters: supporting test-takers. Committed to flexibility in exam delivery, Cirrus offers options in fixed and pop-up test centres, as well as remote solutions, allowing candidates to take exams anytime, anywhere in the world.

TEAMCo brings years of hands-on experience in high-stakes exam logistics, handling everything from candidate registration to on-site coordination with a focus on security and peace of mind. Located throughout the UK, they offer a wide range of locations in Edinburgh, Glasgow, London, Birmingham, Bristol, Cambridge, Leeds, Manchester, and Reading, just to name a few. Their expertise makes complex exam setups feel straightforward, allowing organisations to run exams with confidence and ease. Together, Cirrus and TEAMCo are raising the bar for assessment delivery, blending digital innovation with tried-and-true logistical support to help institutions connect with candidates everywhere.

“This partnership with TEAMCo is about rethinking how we deliver exams,” said Ela Slutski, CEO of Cirrus. “Together, we’re giving organisations the freedom to offer exams in flexible, secure settings without the usual stress of logistics. It’s a win for everyone involved.”

Cirrus’s platform supports every step of the assessment process - from designing items and securely delivering exams to automated grading and data insights - while TEAMCo’s flexible test centres handle the on-the-ground details that make a smooth examination experience possible. Clients can now streamline exam scheduling, coordinate venues, and easily scale up capacity, knowing their candidates are in good hands.

“Our collaboration with Cirrus reflects our shared commitment to providing robust, candidate-first solutions. We’re proud to be creating a future for exam delivery that blends flexibility with unmatched operational excellence,” said Tom Vidler, Co-Founder and Commercial Director of TEAMCo.

“As exams and certifications continue to evolve, this partnership offers a solution designed to grow with changing needs. It’s a collaboration that puts candidates first, with Cirrus and TEAMCo leading the way to a future of assessment that’s flexible, secure, and refreshingly simple.”
