

Cinematic Music Visual Artist Robert Cristian Jordan Year End Announcements

Iconix Radio Visual Podcast Show Host Rosii Interviews Robert And The Result Is A Wildly Entertaining & Informative Hour

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES, December 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today Independent artist/songwriter Robert Cristian Jordan announced the release of two singles for the holiday season. Both songs begin international air play on terrestrial radio this week. Earlier Robert was the special guest of Iconix Radio's show host Rosii Johnson. The approximate one hour podcast featured Robert whose performances include both vocal and visual contributions. The interview includes additional information about Robert's new holiday audio releases as well as his dedication to the need of children without parents, the topic of adoption. Robert shares, "The perception about adoption being a negative experience is not reality. Raising kids is challenging no matter what but that's also the love you end up getting for the love you gave. Family warmth is a gift for each other. One of the best non-profit charities to learn more about this topic is the Dave Thomas Foundation."

Currently Robert is in the process of assembling his new cinematic musical following the success of the "Phoenix Rising" stage performance. "Phoenix Rising" incorporated the use of mechanical shoulder harnessed wings that opened on cue with the song's touching lyrics. The holiday singles being released starting
