SECURITY TODAY ANNOUNCES 2024 CYBERSECURED AWARDS WINNERS

Today, Security Today, providing in-depth insights for a more secure tomorrow, is pleased to name the winners of its 2024 CyberSecured Awards program.

WOODLAND HILLS, CA, UNITED STATES, December 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today, Security Today, providing in-depth insights for a more secure tomorrow, brought to you by Converge360, a division of 1105 Media, is pleased to name the winners of its 2024 CyberSecured Awards program.

This year, 14 companies are being recognized for their network products and other cybersecurity initiatives that secure our world today.

"Today, as we stand at the forefront of an ever-evolving digital landscape, we celebrate those who have embraced the latest in cybersecurity innovation, securing not just data but the very infrastructure that powers our world," said Ralph C. Jensen, editor in chief and publisher of Security Today.

"In an age where physical security needs are rapidly changing to meet new threats, these awardees exemplify the courage, vision, and expertise required to protect both our digital and physical realms. Their leadership ensures that as technology advances, our safety and trust in the systems that support us do as well," Jensen continued.
