

Atticus Publishing Presents 'The Lord, The Mafia, and the Government' by Carmine

"A Riveting Tale of Redemption, Power, and Divine Intervention"

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, December 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Atticus Publishing proudly announces the release of Carmine's (Andrew Menichino) compelling memoir, The Lord, The Mafia, and the Government, a powerful narrative that bridges his remarkable life experiences with a critical commentary on history repeating itself. With this groundbreaking work, Carmine sheds light on his unique journey while drawing striking parallels between past governmental actions and today's political climate.

In The Lord, The Mafia, and the Government, Carmine reveals his journey from the shadowy corridors of power to the stark realities of incarceration, where he discovered his gift from God. The book intricately weaves his encounters with powerful Mafia leaders, political figures, and government officials with his reflections on corruption and resilience. Through his story, Carmine highlights a thought-provoking perspective: what happened to him thirty-six years ago mirrors what he perceives as the systematic destruction of political figures today.

Carmine's candid storytelling uncovers a message he believes to be divine in origin: urging readers to "open their eyes" and recognize the patterns of power and opposition at play. Beyond a critique of political and governmental dynamics, The Lord, The Mafia, and the Government serves as a testament to faith, transformation, and the enduring impact of divine intervention.

"This book is about more than my life—it's a call to awareness," says Carmine. "The messenger of God directed me to share this story, and I hope it inspires readers to see the truth and stand firm against injustice."

Carmine recently appeared on The Spotlight Network with renowned host Logan Crawford to
