Following the expansion of its flagship Dallas location in November—which unveiled a stunning custom candle bar—CRAV CO. continues to elevate the candle experience. The custom candle bar invites customers to craft personalized candles, choosing from exclusive, hand-formulated scents and tailored design options for a truly bespoke creation.

Expanding to this vibrant community is a dream come true, and I can't wait to share the art of candle-making and our luxury scents with you all.”

Adrian Valdez

Adding to the interactive experience, CRAV CO. offers its candle workshops, celebrated as the best in Dallas. These workshops are a fun and engaging way for guests to sip wine, enjoy charcuterie, and learn the craft of candle and scent making. For private celebrations, CRAV CO. also hosts tailored parties, providing an intimate and memorable candle-making adventure for groups.

“I'm thrilled to announce CRAV's second storefront in Frisco” said Adrian Valdez, owner and founder of CRAV CO. “Expanding to this vibrant community is a dream come true, and I can't wait to share the art of candle-making and our luxury scents with you all. This new space represents not just growth, but our commitment to creating unforgettable experiences. We're excited to welcome you to our Frisco location and continue building moments that you'll CRAV.”

Renowned for its hand-poured, sustainable candles, CRAV CO. has become synonymous with luxury and sustainability. Each fragrance is exclusively formulated in collaboration with one of the nation's top perfumologists, based in Dallas, and every candle is meticulously crafted and hand poured with eco-friendly materials. Recently, CRAV CO. expanded its product line to include luxurious diffusers, delivering the same signature scents in a new format.

As the candle market continues to grow—fueled by rising demand for home décor, wellness products, and sustainable luxury—CRAV CO. stands at the forefront. With its commitment to quality, sustainability, and creativity, the brand is redefining what it means to indulge in luxury home fragrance.
