Photography, in collaboration with Sunrise Ruby Event Solutions, invites the community to an inspiring evening of art, local business, and philanthropy. On January 14th, 2025, Prairie House in Lewisville will host a come-and-go art showcase, featuring photography from 2024, including Macy Alex Photography's viral eclipse photo from April 2024.

As a photographer, I have the privilege of documenting the strength and love that define families. Giving Grace reflects that same passion by helping families rebuild their lives.”

This special event is designed to celebrate the beauty of families and connections while making a difference in the community. A portion of all proceeds will be donated to Giving Grace, a Denton County nonprofit dedicated to breaking the cycle of homelessness.

“Giving Grace is committed to helping individuals and families break the cycle of homelessness,” said Dawn Shapley, CEO of Giving Grace. “Our coaches and Case Managers work with each household to identify the unique issues that cause them to become homeless. We then stabilize their housing situation and provide a custom program for each, with a strong focus on self-sustainability. Our goal is to equip them to live a healthy, stable life, filled with hope and optimism for the future.”

Attendees will enjoy food provided by Prairie House Lewisville and browse a curated collection of photographs that capture the essence of 2024. Highlights include heartfelt family moments and the viral eclipse image that captivated so many.

The event will also feature six local women-owned businesses that will be selling their products with a portion of the proceeds going to Giving Grace:
