

Englewood Invitational Fall Art Festival Welcomes World-Class Artists and Craftsmen

Lunata.Art's Vibrant Petrykivka Booth Declared a "Happy Place" by Visitors

FL, UNITED STATES, December 12, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The highly anticipated Englewood Invitational Fall Art Festival returned this year, showcasing 50 world-class artists and craftsmen on November 30 and December 1 at the Englewood Elks Club. Touted as the "Best Little Art Show in Englewood," the festival attracted art lovers from across the region, celebrating creativity, craftsmanship, and originality in an intimate setting.

Among the festival's standout attractions was the booth of Lunata.Art, led by Ukrainian artist Natalie Lu, who specializes in Petrykivka painting, a UNESCO-recognized folk art. Visitors flocked to motifs and symbolic imagery, which Natalie describes as a way to bring harmony and joy into people's lives. Many attendees described her booth as a "happy place" where vivid colors and intricate designs uplifted their spirits.

Lunata.Art's exhibit, drawn by its vivid floral

Rooted in Ukrainian tradition, Petrykivka painting is renowned for its colorful depictions of nature, believed to shield homes from negative energy while promoting prosperity and positivity. Lunata.Art blends traditional techniques with a modern twist, offering stunning works on canvas, wood, and ceramics. Each piece embodies love, safety, and joy, transforming ordinary spaces into lively havens of warmth and beauty.

"My inspiration comes from the boundless fantasy of Mother Nature," Natalie explained.

"Through Lunata.Art, I aim to preserve the rich colors of life and share a sense of connection with the world."

Festival-goers were mesmerized by the intricate details of her pieces, with many praising her ability to combine cultural heritage with contemporary style. Visitors noted that her booth felt like an oasis of positivity, with its radiant colors and designs leaving them inspired and energized.

Lunata.Art Happy Place

Event Highlights

The festival featured a wide array of original art, from fine paintings and handcrafted ceramics to intricate jewelry and unique sculptures. Visitors had the opportunity to meet the artists behind the work, learn about their creative processes, and purchase one-of-a-kind pieces.

“Englewood Invitational Fall Art Festival is all about celebrating originality and the people who create it,” said the event organizers. “Lunata.Art’s booth, with its vibrant and joyful energy, captured the essence of what this festival is all about.”

Lunata Art

About the Englewood Invitational Art Festival:

The Englewood Invitational Art Festival is a tri-annual event showcasing original art and craftsmanship from local and international artists. With a focus on fostering creativity and community, the festival brings together art lovers and creators in a welcoming, intimate setting.

About Lunata.Art:

Lunata.Art, led by Ukrainian artist Natalie Lu, specializes in Petrykivka painting, a UNESCO-recognized folk art form. Lunata.Art combines traditional techniques with a modern touch, celebrating the beauty of nature and the bold culture of Ukrainian heritage through stunning works on canvas, wood, and ceramics.

Jonatan Smithman

Digital Marketing

email us here

---

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/767861493>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

