

Durham School Services Showcases State-of-the-Art School Buses & Safety Technology for Mayor Simison of Meridian, Idaho

MERIDIAN, ID, UNITED STATES, December 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Durham School Services recently welcomed Mayor Simison of Meridian to its new facility and introduced its advanced fleet of buses.

During his visit, Mayor Simison was given a tour of Durham's brand-new facility by General Manager Samuel Ray while Safety Training Supervisor Terry Marinos proudly showcased a bus from Durham's new 200+ bus fleet. The mayor was also given an in-depth overview of the safety technology and other features aboard all of Durham's buses. This includes DriveCam (driver safety monitoring system), Zonar (pre and post trip inspection reporting), CCTV, LED lights, and more.

"This visit from Mayor Simison was an exciting experience. In addition to showcasing our facility and buses, it gave us the special opportunity to display the incredible safety technology we use to transport the students of Meridian safely, every day. It also allowed us to highlight the phenomenal hard work our team put into ensuring a successful school start-up for the school district," said Samuel Ray, General Manager, Durham School Services.

"Moreover, we were able to reaffirm our Company's values and commitment to always providing safe and reliable service. I'd like to thank Mayor Simison for his visit and sincerity in learning about our bus operations. It was an honor."
