About KARD

KARD is a pioneering co-ed K-pop group under DSP Media, celebrated for breaking boundaries in the music industry with their unique lineup and genre-blending sound. Since their debut in 2016, the quartet—consisting of members BM, Jiwoo, Somin, and J.Seph—has captivated fans worldwide with their dynamic performances, addictive melodies, and electrifying choreography.

KARD's music combines elements of dancehall, EDM, hip-hop, and pop, creating a fresh and versatile style that resonates across diverse audiences. Their chart-topping hits include "Don't Recall," "Bomb Bomb," "Hola Hola," "You in Me," "Ring the Alarm," and "Icky," which have solidified their reputation as innovators in the K-pop scene.

Beyond their music, KARD is renowned for their high-energy live performances and deep connection with fans, affectionately known as Hidden KARDs. The group has completed multiple global tours, performing in regions such as the Americas, Europe, and Asia, showcasing their universal appeal and cross-cultural reach.

KARD continues to push the envelope with each release, blending creativity and authenticity to redefine what it means to be a K-pop group. With their NEW ERA Tour, KARD embarks on the next chapter of their journey, bringing fans an unforgettable experience that celebrates their growth and artistry.
