The toys, valued between $10–$20, will benefit children aged 4–12, providing age-appropriate and thoughtful gifts. They will be delivered to the Toys for Tots collection center at the Outlet Shoppes of El Paso, where they will be distributed to families who have applied for support.

Families in need can register for toys through the Toys for Tots website, with a wide range of gifts available to make the holidays brighter for children across the region. The El Paso campaign ensures all donations stay local, serving the city’s most vulnerable communities.

Michael Gopin’s Giving with Gopin initiative continues to emphasize the importance of community involvement, inspiring others to join in spreading kindness and holiday cheer. Residents are encouraged to contribute by donating toys, volunteering, or supporting Toys for Tots and other local organizations.
