

Formica Law Group Represents Crash Victims from Palm Springs Festival Parade Involving Police Officer

Formica Law Group is representing multiple injured victims from the parade that involved a police officer

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, December 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Formica Law Group announces they officially represent multiple crash victims from the tragic accident at the Festival of Lights Parade in Palm Springs. The parade took place on Saturday, December 7, 2024.

As a police officer on a motorcycle was controlling the crowd and performing demonstrations, the officer lost control of his vehicle and slammed into the crowd. Multiple victims were left injured in the incident and have sought legal representation from the trial attorneys at Formica Law Group.

"Our hearts go out to the families with loved ones still in the hospital and to those recovering from Saturday's terrible tragedy. We ask the public to respect their privacy," said Stefano Formica of Formica Law Group in Los Angeles.

"As their attorneys, Formica Law Group will continue our investigation while we await the results of the City's and CHP's investigations to determine what led to this avoidable, tragic event."

Eleven spectators were injured when the motorcycle slammed into the crowd, leaving numerous people with injuries. The law office is representing several of the victims who were struck by the motorcycle, including Sunny Dainty, Vicki Maldonado, Ester Ruiz, Jessica Ruiz, Ian Silvas (minor, age 4), and Bailey Martinson (minor, age 12).

Stefano Formica, Founder of FORMICA LAW GROUP in Los Angeles, is an experienced Trial Attorney who has recovered over $100,000,000 on behalf of his clients. Stefano is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA).

The motorcycle crash was caught on video, which has gone viral. The video shows a police officer on his motorcycle accelerating before hitting the crowd as they awaited the holiday parade. The video can be viewed online here:
