EMPOWERING BUSINESS SCHOOLS TO FIND EXCEPTIONAL TALENT

AcademyHire was created to meet the changing needs of academic recruitment, offering tools and services that save time and make finding the right fit easier. The platform's mission is to help schools find passionate and qualified educators who can inspire the next generation of business leaders.

"Our goal is to simplify academic hiring and make it more impactful," says Karim Bennouna, Founder of AcademyHire. "We're dedicated to helping business schools connect with exceptional educators who inspire and elevate institutions. AcademyHire embodies our mission to empower both educators and the schools they serve."

KEY FEATURES TO STREAMLINE HIRING FOR BUSINESS SCHOOLS

AcademyHire offers a comprehensive suite of features tailored to meet the specific needs of business schools, ensuring a seamless and effective hiring process:

- SEO-Optimized Job Listings: Job posts are designed to appear prominently in search results, helping institutions connect with qualified educators for various positions, including professors, instructors, and faculty roles in business schools.

- Google Jobs Integration: Seamless integration ensures broader visibility for job postings, allowing business schools to find instructors and other academic professionals efficiently.

- Comprehensive Marketing Support: Through social media promotion, email alerts, and customized strategies, AcademyHire ensures that job postings reach a wide audience of lecturers and faculty members seeking opportunities in business education.

- Professional Presentation: Branded job postings include logos and direct links to institutional websites, reinforcing credibility and professionalism.

- AI-Enhanced Tools: Upcoming features include AcademyHire MatchScore AI, an AI-powered tool that provides recruiters with a compatibility score by analyzing a candidate's qualifications against a specific job description, streamlining individual candidate evaluations and improving hiring efficiency.

- Flexible Posting Plans: Options range from basic listings to featured posts, including enhanced visibility and multimedia promotion for maximum engagement.
