

Next Semester Consultation Launches New Private Group Sessions for College Transition Success

Next Semester Consultation introduces innovative Private Group Sessions, fostering peer support and confidence for a smooth college transition.

TAMARAC, FL, UNITED STATES,
December 13, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Next Semester Consultation, a leading provider of college transition support, has announced the launch of its innovative Private Group Sessions, designed to equip high school graduates with the skills and confidence they need for a seamless start to college.

These group sessions are the latest addition to the company's comprehensive College Transition Program, offering a collaborative and interactive environment where students can build essential time-management, study, and communication skills. The sessions aim to foster community, encourage shared learning, and prepare participants for the academic and personal challenges of higher education.

"Our Private Group Sessions are a game-changer for students seeking a supportive and interactive way to prepare for college," said Erik Peterson, CEO of Next Semester Consultation. "This initiative underscores our commitment to empowering students to transition confidently into their first semester and beyond."

Founded in 2019 by Bridgette Cassidy, Next Semester Consultation has helped hundreds of students achieve success in their academic journeys. The new group sessions complement the company's existing offerings, which include one-on-one coaching, workshops, and mentorship programs.

Key features of the Private Group Sessions include:

Collaborative Learning: Students engage with peers to discuss strategies and share insights.

Skill Development: Focused modules on time management, effective studying, and goal setting.

Expert Guidance: Sessions led by experienced coaches with a deep understanding of college dynamics.

Flexible Scheduling: Designed to fit seamlessly into students' pre-college plans.

The launch comes at a time when many students are seeking structured support to navigate the transition from high school to college. This new offering from Next Semester Consultation addresses a critical need, ensuring participants are well-prepared to excel academically and personally.

Dr. Bridgette Cassidy

“Feedback from our pilot sessions has been overwhelmingly positive,” said Founder Bridgette Cassidy. “Students report feeling more confident, organized, and ready to face the challenges of their first semester.”

Our Private Group Sessions create a supportive environment where students build confidence and skills for a successful college journey.”

Erik Peterson

Next Semester Consultation invites high school graduates and their families to explore this new program and experience the benefits of a tailored, community-focused approach to college preparation.
