1230 West Garmon Road, Atlanta, Georgia

Listed for $5.995 million by Betsy Akers of Atlanta Fine Homes Sotheby's International Realty

Current High Bid: US$2.3 million

Set on 2.62 acres, this ornate palace is located in the prestigious Sandy Springs residential enclave of Atlanta, Georgia. A supreme reproduction of the neoclassical architectural style that swept Europe in the 1700s, the property mirrors the exterior design of Paris's Le Petit Trianon chapel in Versailles. Passing through wrought iron gates to enter the property, visitors are greeted by meticulously landscaped gardens and a two-story marble entrance hall with an elegant black marble fountain. The main living spaces exude timeless elegance, evident in the banquet-sized formal dining room adorned with chandeliers. Perfect for entertaining, visitors can explore an elegant wood-paneled library/office, a grand kitchen complete with all high end appliances, or the grand living room that opens to the walkout pool and spa terrace. An enclosed breezeway connects the pool house and the home's main level, which includes a gym, wine cellar and family room overlooking the walkout pool and spa. Featuring seven bedrooms and 11 bathrooms, the property makes for a versatile option as a palatial retreat or an elegant setting for hosting guests.
