

Katy Perry to Perform in Copenhagen in 2025

Popular world concert tour coming to Royal Arena

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK, December 13, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Copenhagen has been added as a stop on American singer Katy Perry's "The Lifetimes" World Tour. The European leg of the tour is currently scheduled to run from October 7th through November 4th, beginning in Glasgow, Scotland, and ending in Paris, France. The Lifetimes tour is expected to be one of Europe's most popular concert tours of 2025.

Perry is an internationally acclaimed pop artist known for her chart-topping hits like "Roar," "Teenage Dream," and "Firework," which have earned her multiple Grammy nominations and widespread recognition as one of the best-selling music artists of all time. Beyond her music, she is celebrated for her vibrant stage presence, bold fashion choices, and her role as a judge on the television show American Idol.

The Royal Arena performance will also be one of Copenhagen's biggest events of the year.
