experiences, and perspectives, reminding us of the connections we share as a global community. Each image reflects not just technical skill, but the courage and creativity to capture moments that were able to move the hearts of our jurors.”

Grand Jury Panel

The New York Photography Awards is honored to have a jury of expert photographers from around the globe. This year’s panel includes Nicholas Duers (United States), Alessandra Minotti (Italy), Ryo Utsunomiya (Japan), Marine Foissey (France), Nader Bilgrami (Netherlands), and many others. Their expertise and dedication to the art of photography ensure that each submission is evaluated with professionalism and care, celebrating the excellence and storytelling behind every image.

“The winners of this year’s New York Photography Awards remind us of the power of photography to connect people globally,” said Thomas. “Each image recognized today reflects a perspective and a deep commitment. Their influence extends far beyond the award, inspiring all to see the world in a new way.”

As the New York Photography Awards concludes its global celebration for 2024, the spotlight also turns to the 2025 MUSE Photography Awards. Celebrating a remarkable 10 years of MUSE, this milestone continues to honor photographers who turn emotions and stories into creative masterpieces.
