

Health Advocates Network, Inc. acquires Staff America, Inc.

Acquisition augments Florida and Midwest nursing scale

BOCA RATON , FL, UNITED STATES, December 16, 2024 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Health Advocates Network, Inc., a leading national provider of supplemental healthcare staffing solutions, today announced the acquisition of Staff America, Inc., a Joint Commission certified staffing company with locations in Ocala, FL and Indianapolis, IN. Established in 2001, Staff America has specialized in placing RNs, LPN/LVNs and Therapists in both local and travel assignments in Florida and Indiana.

“For over 20 years, Staff America has provided quality healthcare professionals to Florida and Indiana hospitals and other healthcare facilities,” said Michael Arthur, Staff America Founder and CEO. “I have followed the success of the founders of Health Advocates Network since their first venture in 1997 when I also formed my first nurse staffing business. Their ability to scale businesses multiple times always impressed me; I am now looking forward to partnering with this team. The combination of Health Advocates’ experienced management team and deep resources will allow for expanded career opportunities for both the Staff America field and internal staff as well as continued geographical expansion.”

“Mike and the Staff America team are veteran operators in our industry with a great reputation,” said Kevin Little, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Health Advocates Network. “We welcome their extremely talented group of internal staff and field employees.”
