What is driving Future Growth in the AAC Blocks and Panels Market?

Increases in construction activities are set to propel the growth of the AAC blocks and panels market. Construction activity pertains to anything linked to land, including the building of infrastructure and structures. Rising infrastructure building and the construction of buildings will intensify the demand for AAC blocks, given their lightweight, load-bearing capabilities, excellent insulation, and durability. They are even 3 times lighter compared to traditional red bricks. According to Zippia, a recruitment company based in the U.S, there was a 4% rise in construction activities from 2020 to 2021 with an addition of 1,337,800 housing units. Hence, an upswing in construction activities is a significant contributor to the growth of the AAC blocks and panels market.
