Leaders in the Law identifies legal excellence and is comprised of industry leading attorneys in the United States who have met the highest qualifications in their practice.

Keith and David are both honored and grateful for their recognition. “We strive, at all times, to provide the best service to our clients,” Altman said, “and I am very proud to work with our team.” Brown added, “It is very rewarding to be honored as a Leader in the Law. When David and I started the firm back in 2008, we wanted to be known as the ‘go to’ attorneys on Long Island for commercial real estate. Sixteen years later, we built a solid reputation as experts in the field, based on our knowledge, our expertise, and our relationships, as well as our ability to cut through the ‘red tape.’ We pride ourselves on our ability to work with people and build a consensus, but sometimes it’s not always possible. In those instances, we use our litigation skills to achieve the necessary results for our clients. It is a pleasure working with such great people in the commercial real estate industry on Long Island and with the various industry organizations.”
