I'm stoked to bring some laughs to 5850 Fest. Between the mountains, skiing, and all-around cool vibes of Ketchum, it's like the ultimate 'not too shabby' setting for a stand-up show.”

The 5850 Fest, taking place from March 20-27, 2025, is set to coincide with the prestigious Audi FIS Ski World Cup Finals, a major international skiing event returning to U.S. soil for the first time in eight years. The festival and competition will help transform Ketchum and Sun Valley into hubs of entertainment, culture and culinary excellence, offering everything from celebrity chef-led activations to curated art exhibits, to intimate shows with music megastars and, now, exclusive comedic experiences.

“Dana Carvey is a perfect addition to 5850 Fest, as we aim to bring a rich array of entertainment and culture to the heart of Idaho,” said Brandon Kuvara and Jenny Dupre, co-founders of 5B Productions, the festival’s organizer. “Dana’s humor and talent, coupled with the festival’s various offerings, are helping to build the cultural event Ketchum and Sun Valley deserve. From top-tier culinary and art experiences to stand-out performances from music and comedy’s best, we’re creating an event that celebrates both the charm of Ketchum and the international spotlight of the World Cup Finals.”
