

An Enthralling Journey in 'US 98: Destination Dade City' by Paul Dean Moore

TOMAH, WI, UNITED STATES, December 16, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "US 98: Destination Dade City" is a gripping tale of survival and suspense, following a mother and her teenage son as they are forced to assume new identities in the U.S. Witness Protection Program after a threat from an organized crime family. Their journey takes them to the quiet community of Dade City, Florida, where they struggle to rebuild their lives under the ever-present threat of discovery.

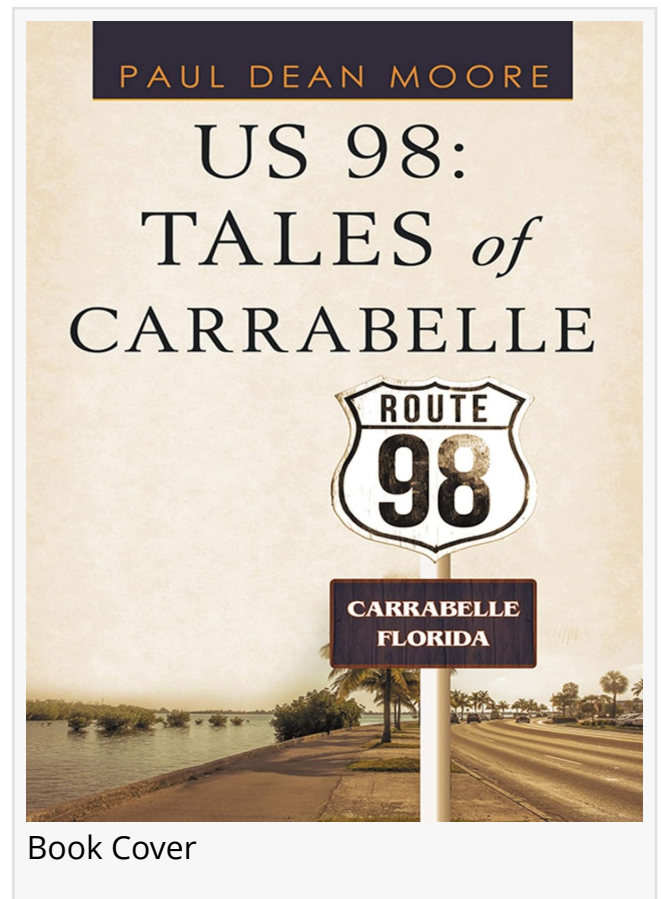

This third installment in the US 98 series features the LeMay family, whose attempts to lay low in a small town are complicated by encounters with local figures, murder, and the fierce world of Florida high school football. With compelling characters and intense drama, Moore explores themes of resilience, loyalty, and the human will to survive.
