

AMMWECC Celebrates Zebunnesa Zubair's Prestigious Award from UPF

AMMWECC is thrilled to announce that our esteemed member, Zebunnesa Zubair, has been honored with the Universal Peace Federation Award

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, December 17, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The American Muslim & Multifaith Women's Empowerment Council (AMMWECC) is thrilled to announce that our esteemed member, Zebunnesa Zubair, has been honored with the Universal Peace Federation Ambassadors For Peace Award for her remarkable contributions to promoting interfaith dialogue, women's empowerment, and global peace. The award was presented during the Universal Peace Federation's annual ceremony, held on December 7th, 2024 in Washington DC.

The Universal Peace Federation Ambassadors For Peace Award is an honor that celebrates individuals who exemplify leadership, compassion, and dedication to building bridges across cultures and faiths. Zebunnesa Zubair's unwavering commitment to fostering understanding and collaboration among diverse communities has made her a beacon of light and inspiration to many.

"Zebunnesa embodies the very essence of AMMWECC's mission to empower women and amplify voices that champion the values of interfaith dialogue, justice, and peace," said Anila Ali, AMMWECC President. "Her work reminds us all of the transformative power of women's voices in addressing global challenges."

Zebunnesa Zeba Zubair has been an integral member of AMMWECC, actively leading initiatives that encourage interfaith partnerships and empower women in leadership roles. Her efforts are having a profound impact not only within the American Muslim and multifaith communities but
