About the partnership, Steve says, “To much is given, much is expected. I've been so fortunate to be part of the Voluntary Benefits business and I'm looking forward to sharing importance of Long-Term Care planning and my insights with benefits professionals.”

Voluntary Advantage is excited to share Steve's thought leadership on trends and the importance of long-term care insurance with the marketplace. Long-term care insurance is a valuable benefit in the employee benefits marketplace and is offered by employers to support financial well-being and address a growing need for extended care coverage. With an aging workforce and increasing longevity, providing long-term care insurance can help employees safeguard their retirement savings, reduce stress related to caregiving responsibilities, and enhance overall peace of mind.
