An Initiative Rooted in Purpose: Supporting Visually Impaired Students

The CSR initiative was designed to support the vital work of The Blind School of Maha Phai Pattaya, an institution dedicated to educating and empowering visually impaired children since 1986. While the event took place at the Redemptorist Foundation for People with Disabilities, its purpose was to provide direct aid and encouragement to the students of the blind school, who rely on community support for their holistic development.

EBC Financial Group volunteers organised the donation of essential supplies and snacks, fostering moments of connection with the visually impaired community. The event underscored the importance of inclusion and the role of organisations in building a compassionate society.

EBC Financial Group's Commitment to Social Responsibility

This initiative is part of EBC Financial Group's broader efforts to uphold its values of fairness, compassion, and responsibility. The organisation's CEO shared in a statement: "Our focus goes beyond financial services; we aim to leave a positive mark on the communities we serve. By supporting institutions like The Blind School of Maha Phai Pattaya, we hope to contribute to a brighter and more inclusive future."

The program, which brought smiles to its participants and beneficiaries, reflects EBC Financial Group's understanding that impactful business practices must be accompanied by meaningful social contributions. This initiative is rooted in EBC's core value of trust, which thrives on building connections with the communities and societies where it operates.

A Legacy of Education and Empowerment

The Blind School of Maha Phai Pattaya, under the patronage of Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn, has been a beacon of hope for visually impaired children for nearly four decades. The school provides free education, specialised programs, and holistic care to its students, ensuring they have the tools needed to thrive.

EBC Financial Group's support adds to the legacy of this remarkable institution, reinforcing its mission to empower visually impaired children through education and opportunity.
