Special livestream event to provide a diversity of thought on the ongoing incursions by drones over sensitive military assets and civilian populations

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES,
December 18, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Over the past month, a mysterious phenomenon has been unfolding across the globe. Unidentified objects, referred to by the U.S. government and the mainstream media as "drones," have been appearing in the skies of the UK, the U.S., and dozens of other countries.

Their frequent appearances, particularly over New Jersey in the U.S. and East Anglia in the UK, have sparked widespread concern. These sightings, concentrated near sensitive areas such as U.S. military bases, have prompted dozens of mayors, state legislators, and members of Congress to demand answers.
