WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES,
December 18, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Walker Memorial Baptist Church is excited to announce its 2nd Annual Being The Church Conference, set for Saturday, January 25, 2025. This one-day event will gather laity, clergy, church leadership, and seminarians for a profound exploration of this year's thought-provoking theme: The Bible – Blessing or Burden? The conference will be held from 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM. The venue for the conference is Walker Memorial Baptist Church 2020 13th Street, NW Washington, DC 20009.

The conference will include distinguished Biblical scholars who hold a unique perspective on scripture, spirituality, and faith, as well as extensive experience:

Biblical Construction:

Reverend Jeremy L. Williams, PhD □ Assistant Professor, New Testament □ Brite Divinity School, Texas Christian University

Biblical Relevance & Application – Old Testament:

Reverend Kimberly D. Russaw, PhD □ Associate Professor, Old Testament □ Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

Biblical Relevance & Application – New Testament:

Reverend Raquel S. Lettsome, PhD □ Professor, New Testament and Womanist Biblical Interpretation □ Eden Theological Seminary

Biblical Misuse:

Reverend Allen Dwight Callahan, PhD □ Independent Scholar □ Author, The Talking Book: African Americans and The Bible

This one-day conference promises to challenge, inspire, and equip attendees to better understand the Bible's critical role in their faith journey. As believers, understanding the complexities and questions surrounding the Bible is foundational to Being The Church in today's world. This is an essential gathering for those seeking to lead, serve, and live faithfully in a world where the Bible's relevance is constantly questioned.

Date: Saturday, January 25, 2025

Location: Walker Memorial Baptist Church, Washington, DC
