EASTON, MD, UNITED STATES, January 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Leadership Maryland announced today that Lorena de Leon, DPA, MBA, Sr. Director of Population Health and SDoH at MPC is very proud of Dr. de Leon and the work she is doing to improve the overall health of Maryland residents.”

Jason Rottman, President and CEO of Maryland Physicians Care

Maryland Physicians Care (MPC), has completed the Executive Program, a professional development program dedicated to building a better Maryland by harnessing the strength of its local business and community leaders. Leadership Maryland honored Dr. de Leon, and the entire Executive Program Class of 2024 at its 31st graduation ceremony held December 3 at the Hilton Baltimore BWI Airport. Dr. de Leon is now a member of Leadership Maryland's powerful alumni network, consisting of more than 1,500 esteemed leaders from all over the state.

Dr. de Leon was one of 51 individuals chosen by a committee to complete the eight-month hands-on learning program. The class participated in an orientation and closing retreat that bookended five, two-day sessions focused on Maryland's five main geographic regions and the most vital issues impacting economic development, education, health and human services, criminal justice, the environment, and multi-culturalism/diversity across the state. More than 100 experts representing Maryland's business, government, education, and non-profit communities served as panelists and guest speakers.

“On behalf of our staff, board, and membership, I congratulate the Executive Program Class of 2024 on completing the program and joining our alumni family,” said David Fike '16 (LM), president and CEO, Leadership Maryland. “Each class year brings its own unique lessons, and I am proud to have witnessed the ways the Class of 2024 embraced each one on their journey to become a force for positive change in their organizations, communities, and state.”

“Dr. de Leon found the Leadership Maryland program very beneficial and gave her deep insight into many aspects of the regions and organizations that make Maryland great,” said Jason Rottman, President and CEO, Maryland Physicians Care. “MPC is very proud of Dr. de Leon and the work she is doing to improve the overall health of Maryland residents. The knowledge she gained from this program will benefit that mission.”

The Executive Program is open to senior-level executives with significant achievements in their careers and/or their communities. Ideal Leadership Maryland members have a desire to learn more about Maryland’s most critical issues and a personal commitment to be a force for positive change in their organizations, their communities, and their state.
