Papi, Por Favor! by Rossana Snee

Intent on hiding her emotions, Madison becomes ensnared in a tangled web of secrets. She wrestles with her deepening feelings for Ben while also maneuvering through the tangled relationships with her adoptive twin sisters, Caro and Tina, and her friend, Nina Abbott, who secretly pines for Ben as well. Madison's other friends, Elena Mercado and Mari Rosales, add to the complexity with their mixed opinions. Mari, in particular, raises a red flag, cautioning that Ben might be trouble.

As Madison's affection for Ben deepens, so do the lies she tells to keep her feelings hidden. But as with all secrets, they have a way of surfacing, often at the most inopportune moments. The truth bursts forth, igniting tension among the crowd, including Nina, who, fueled by her obsession with Pride and Prejudice, envisions Ben as her "Mr. Darcy" and Madison as her "frenemy."

Author Rossana Snee crafts a captivating tale filled with humor and heart, resonating with anyone who has gone through the challenges of first love and the intricacies of friendship. As Madison navigates her feelings, friendships, and her father's rules, discovering that love, like life, unfolds in a messy yet beautiful way, readers will find themselves cheering her on every step of the journey.

"Papi, Por Favor!" by Rossana Snee stands as a poignant reminder that love, despite one's best efforts, often defies control. This captivating novel draws in young adult readers and anyone who recalls the excitement and hurdles of experiencing first love. Step into the vibrant beginnings of love and youth.
