Leading Plastic Surgery Team Headed by Dr. Norman Rowe Opens New Office; Event raises funds for Center for Family Services Palm Beach County Old Bags Luncheon

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, December 19, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. Norman Rowe of Rowe Plastic Surgery hosted a reception at Le Bar in Palm Beach, FL to celebrate the opening of the Palm Beach location of Rowe Plastic Surgery.

This new expansion marks an exciting milestone for South Florida residents, as Dr. Rowe becomes the only New York-based, Board-Certified Plastic Surgeon to offer his sought-after services in the heart of Palm Beach.

The invitation-only event was held on December 3rd, 2024, in collaboration with the Old Bags Luncheon, the signature fundraising event of the Center for Family Service Palm Beach County and a fixture of the Palm Beach social calendar, which is due to be held Wednesday, February 19th, 2025 at the Breakers Hotel.

The event provided an evening of elegance and education, where guests met Dr. Rowe and his team, gained insider access to the latest cosmetic advancements, and were even able to book personalized consultations. In addition, a portion of all consultation and treatment fees scheduled during the event went toward supporting The Center for Family Services Palm Beach County.

“Palm Beach has long been a destination for luxury and wellness yet has lacked the accessibility to a surgeon that offers a natural surgical approach.

Over the last two decades, our practice has experienced explosive growth across the North-East, and now with the opening of this seventh location, we are excited to be accessible to both new
