Founded by David Schulte, who retired in 2020, Schulte Roofing is now led by his son, Josh

I'm truly grateful for all of our customers who could've chosen someone else! I'm also grateful for our team, especially the members who have gone above and beyond to serve our customers well.”

Josh Schulte

Schulte, an experienced roofer who established the company's commercial roofing division and has been instrumental in its recent expansion. Under Josh's guidance, Schulte Roofing remains committed to delivering quality and innovation to customers, backed by one of the industry's best warranties.

"It's truly rare to see a business reach the 30-year mark, and we owe our success to our customers and our exceptional team," said Josh Schulte, President of Schulte Roofing. "From the beginning, my father set high standards of integrity and quality. Today, our family and team honor that legacy by staying committed to those same values.”

Family and Community at the Core

Schulte Roofing stands apart as a family-run business, with eight Schulte family members actively contributing to the company, including siblings, an uncle, and a cousin. Many senior staff members have been with Schulte Roofing for over 20 years, underscoring a culture of loyalty, teamwork, and commitment to customer satisfaction.

"First and foremost I would like to thank God. It's a great feeling to maintain stability and steady growth for thirty years. I'm truly grateful for all of our customers who could've chosen someone else but chose us! I'm also grateful for our team, especially the members who have gone above and beyond to serve our customers well. "

This dedication has resulted in multiple industry awards, including the Better Business Bureau's Torch Award for Marketplace Ethics and a position among the Top 100 Roofing Companies in the United States. The company is known not only for high-quality commercial and residential roofing but also for its deep involvement in local communities. Schulte Roofing actively participates in local Chambers of Commerce, the Bryan/College Station Home Builders Association, and other regional organizations, reinforcing its commitment to the communities it serves.

Expanding Reach and Excellence

Under Josh's leadership, Schulte Roofing has expanded to serve more Texas communities, adding San Antonio and Killeen to its service areas. With his background as a roofer, Josh combines technical expertise with a strong vision for growth, ensuring that Schulte Roofing's standards for quality and trust are upheld as the company grows.

"It's been years of literal blood sweat and tears and I can honestly say we've earned every bit of our success. While thirty years is a good milestone, we're already making improvements and working toward a bigger and better year forty. We're truly blessed to be in a great country, state, and community surrounded by great people. My hope and prayer is that God will continue to bless us all, we will be sure to do our part to work diligently."

Looking to the Future

As Schulte Roofing celebrates its 30th anniversary, it looks forward to future opportunities to serve Texas residents and businesses with integrity and innovation. This milestone highlights Schulte Roofing's dedication to building not just roofs, but lasting relationships across Texas.
