Understanding one's identity in Christ is essential for every believer. As born-again, spirit-filled Christians, we are new creations called to advance God's Kingdom. ourselves as God does and fully embrace our true identity in Him.

Michelle Heimbuch was born in Indiana and now resides in Washington State. Through her faith and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, she has overcome years of pain, suffering, and the negative thoughts that plagued her. After experiencing deception and manipulation by Satan, Michelle found her true identity in Christ. Today, she is a spiritual teacher, author, and prophetic woman of God who encourages others to embrace how God sees them. Her hope is that Misplace Identity will help readers shed the false identities imposed by the enemy and embrace their true selves as defined by God.

Michelle wrote Misplace Identity after witnessing many Christians struggling to understand who they truly are. Reflecting on her own transformation, she shares, "My journey of discovering my identity in Christ changed my life, and I wanted to help others have that same realization. Through this book, I hope to guide readers toward a deeper understanding of their identity and purpose, helping them recognize the ways the enemy deceives and manipulates us if we don't have heart knowledge of how God sees us."

The central message of Misplace Identity is that many Christians continue to struggle because they don't fully grasp their identity in Christ, often carrying baggage from their past into their new lives. Michelle relates to the feeling of insecurity, confusion, and defeat that can accompany this struggle, and she urges readers to forgive, let go of the past, and allow the Holy Spirit to lead them into all truth. "We need to recognize the tactics Satan uses to hinder us from understanding our God-given identity," says Michelle. "Seeing ourselves as God sees us is key to embracing our freedom, power, and authority as His children. It starts by leaving the past at the foot of the cross and living from the heart knowledge of who we are in Christ."
