

eufy to Unveil its New Robot Lawn Mower at CES 2025

Will expand eufy's robotic appliance portfolio and bring AI-powered home automation to both indoor and outdoor spaces

BELLEVUE, WASHINGTON, UNITED STATES, December 20, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- eufy, Anker Innovation's robotic appliance and home security brand, will give Pepcom attendees an early look at its new robot lawn mower at Pepcom's Digital Experience during CES 2025.

eufy's new robotic lawn mower leverages a range of unique technologies, including Anker's advanced battery system, intelligent navigation, and an intuitive app experience that enables a truly hands-free, modern lawn care solution. The mower also incorporates technology from TerraMow to further enhance its capabilities.

From robot vacuums and mopping systems to advanced home security solutions that ensure family safety, eufy is a trusted name in over 8 million households worldwide. With the introduction of its new robotic lawn mower, the brand is extending its expertise in robotics and home automation to outdoor spaces.
