

Minsk Airport by Recs Architects Wins Iron in A' Interior Design Awards

Recs Architects' Minsk Airport Private Jet Terminal Recognized for Excellence in Interior Design by the A' Design Award and Competition

COMO, CO, ITALY, December 20, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Design Award and Competition, a highly respected recognition in the field of interior design, has announced Recs Architects as a winner of the Iron A' Interior Space, Retail and Exhibition Design Award for their exceptional work on the Minsk Airport Private Jet Terminal. This prestigious accolade highlights the significance of the Minsk Airport design within the interior design industry, positioning it as a notable example of innovation and creativity.

The Minsk Airport Private Jet Terminal design by Recs Architects holds relevance for both the interior design industry and potential customers. By aligning with current trends and advancing industry standards, the design demonstrates the practical benefits of thoughtful interior design for users, the industry, and other stakeholders. The terminal's innovative features and focus on functionality showcase the potential for interior design to enhance the travel experience and set new benchmarks for the industry.

Recs Architects' design for the Minsk Airport Private Jet Terminal stands out for its unique approach to creating a welcoming and elegant space. The entrance hall features a striking sculptural wall that expands throughout the surrounding environment, while the central spiral staircase with brass balustrades unifies the space with a hint of aeronautical style. The large main hall is illuminated by a brass-profiled globe, with a wind rose inlaid on the floor in marble and brass. The meeting room's oval table, made of black mirror, reflects the scattered bulbs above, creating a dynamic effect. The VIP saloon, accessed via a glass corridor, offers a fireplace and expansive views of the landing strip.

The recognition bestowed upon the Minsk Airport Private Jet Terminal by the A' Interior Space, Retail and Exhibition Design Award serves as a motivator for Recs Architects to continue pursuing excellence and innovation in their future projects. This accolade may inspire the team to further explore novel design concepts and push the boundaries of what is possible within the interior design realm, without implying dominance over the industry. The award serves as a testament to the skill and dedication of the Recs Architects team, showcasing their ability to create spaces that are both functional and visually captivating.
