This modular sofa design has been awarded the Iron A' Design Award, a prestigious recognition that highlights the design's adherence to rigorous professional and industrial standards within the furniture industry.

The Livorno modular sofa is a testament to Dogtas Design Team's commitment to creating furniture that combines luxury, comfort, and innovative design. This recognition from the A' Design Award underscores the relevance and value of the Livorno design to the furniture industry and its potential to positively impact the lives of its users.

The modular design allows for various configurations, providing flexibility and adaptability to different living spaces.
