

Orlando Rehabilitation Hospital Announces New Chief Executive Officer

John Laurenzana III, MBA, FACHE Takes the Helm as CEO

ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES, December 31, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With nearly two decades of healthcare leadership experience, John has made significant contributions in acute rehabilitation hospitals, medical group practices, acute care operations, and sub-acute care across the United States. Most recently, he served as the Chief Executive Officer of a rehabilitation hospital in Virginia, where he achieved remarkable success in community reintegration rates, positioning his facility among the best in the nation. Under his guidance, patient outcomes and satisfaction soared to the 90th percentile. He has led organizations that have received numerous quality accolades, including consecutive Best Rehabilitation Hospital Awards from U.S. News from 2013 to 2020.

"John's leadership at our Orlando Rehabilitation Hospital is a tremendous asset. John's exceptional leadership in rehabilitation care is evident through the numerous awards his previous hospitals have received, showcasing their outstanding performance," said Chris Bergh, COO of Nobis Rehab Partners.

John holds a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from the University of Illinois and a Master of Business Administration in Healthcare Management from Liberty University. John is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE).
