“We are humbled and honored to expand Guardian Recovery’s mission into Texas with the opening of the Dallas Addiction Center,” said Josh Scott, CEO of Guardian Recovery. “Texans deserve greater access to high-quality behavioral healthcare and substance use disorder treatment. While there are several outstanding providers in the state with whom we’ve had the privilege of working alongside for many years, a significant need for care remains unmet. Too many individuals cannot access the treatment they need due to factors like availability or cost. By partnering with several commercial payors, we aim to increase accessibility to care for Texans. We are proud to join the Texas community in this effort.”

Strategically located just 25 minutes north of downtown Dallas, near the intersection of the Dallas North Tollway and President George Bush Turnpike, the new facility offers:

Medical Detox Services: Management of withdrawal symptoms at a safe, comfortable, private residential campus.

Inpatient Residential Care: Comprehensive, personalized treatment plans for addiction and co-occurring mental health disorders.

The Dallas Addiction Center exemplifies Guardian Recovery's commitment to compassionate, client-centered care. The facility's experienced clinicians and support staff provide expert guidance, care, and encouragement, empowering individuals to rediscover hope and purpose on their recovery journey.

Guardian Recovery is recognized for its high standards of care and holds the Joint Commission's Gold Seal of Approval, the highest level of accreditation for healthcare providers. To ensure accessibility, Guardian Recovery accepts most insurance plans and offers flexible payment options to reduce financial barriers to treatment.
