About Us

Tequila Comisario is committed to crafting the world's best tequilas, carefully curated by masters in Arandas, Jalisco. Our small-batch, estate-harvested tequilas are renowned for their elegance, balance, and distinguished taste. Our brand is committed to the best quality ingredients, our journey begins with a seven year harvest of the worlds finest blue agave in the Golden Tequila Triangle, our world class expressions are then carefully curated with extended processes all the way from the field to the glass. Comisario expressions are double distilled, oxygenated and purified, using only the pure distillate of our award winning estate grown blue agave. We pride ourselves on elevating your spirit one sip at a time, with a focus on elevating quality and community. Join the Comisario family and experience the art of tequila like never before.

Comisario has made its mission to create the worlds best tequilas, decades in the making refining the recipe and process in which its all natural tequila expressions are created, Comisario released its first three expressions in 2009 and has won more awards in the last five years than any other brand. Double Gold and Platinum awards are a true honor in our industry, however, the customer reviews are what mean the most to the founders at Comisario, find out more on tequilacomisario.com.
