A 100% Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon, Méthode Champenoise

Sjoebloom Winery is proud to announce the highly anticipated release of its Vintage 2001 Chauvignon Reserve, a 100% Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon crafted using the Méthode Champenoise. This unique sparkling wine has earned a 91-point rating and multiple medals in wine tasting competitions over the years, solidifying its status as a standout selection for wine enthusiasts.

Spring 2025 Disgorgement and Limited Availability

The winery has announced plans to disgorge the 2001 Chauvignon Reserve during Spring 2025, making it available just in time for the 2025 Christmas and New Year season. With the 1,000 cases from its library collection being released, this exclusive vintage promises to be a sought-after addition to holiday celebrations and collectors' cellars.

There are no other newly disgorged vintages from 2001 Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon that can be acquired, and that is what makes this $250 bottle of sparkling wine truly unique, following
