

Loop by Zeynep and Konstantinos Paradeisopoulos Wins Iron A' Design Award in Homeware Design Category

Innovative Candleholder Design Featuring Interconnected Loops and Accompanying Tray Earns Prestigious Recognition from A' Design Award and Competition

COMO, CO, ITALY, December 24, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Design Award and Competition, a highly respected and prestigious award in the field of homeware design, has announced Loop by Zeynep and Konstantinos Paradeisopoulos as a winner of the Iron A' Design Award in the Homeware Design category. This recognition highlights the significance of the Loop candleholder within the homeware industry, acknowledging its innovative design and practical benefits.

Loop

The Loop candleholder's unique design, featuring interconnected loops and an accompanying tray, aligns with current trends in the homeware industry that prioritize both aesthetics and functionality. This award-winning design offers practical benefits to users, such as a stable base for tall candles and a tray to catch excess wax, while also contributing to the advancement of homeware design standards through its innovative features.

The Loop candleholder stands out in the market with its distinctive design, which features three interconnected loops that serve as a sturdy base for a tall candle. The perpendicular loop housing the candle adds an elegant touch to the overall aesthetic. The accompanying tray, designed specifically for this candleholder, not only catches any excess wax but also serves as a standalone home decoration item when not in use, creating a cohesive and visually appealing set that is both functional and stylish.

This recognition from the A' Design Award and Competition serves as motivation for Zeynep and Konstantinos Paradeisopoulos to continue striving for excellence and innovation in their future projects. The award-winning Loop candleholder has the potential to inspire future designs and influence industry standards, fostering further exploration and innovation within the homeware design field.

Loop was designed by Konstantinos Paradeisopoulos and Zeynep Önder Paradeisopoulos, the founders of Kazoo Design studio.
