Couples Rehab program combines evidence-based treatment with therapeutic modalities tailored to meet the unique challenges faced by couples dealing with addiction. This approach not only addresses individual substance use but also the dynamics within relationships that may contribute to or be affected by addiction.

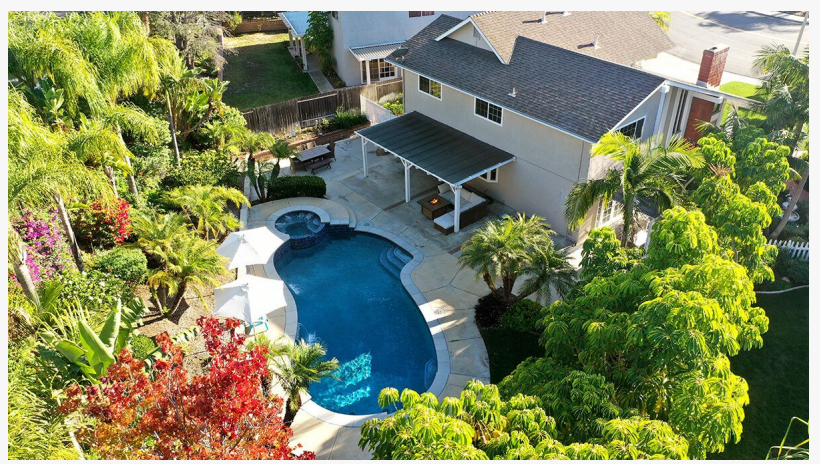

“Embarking on recovery with your partner can significantly enhance the treatment experience and outcomes,” said Clint Kreider, Clinical Director of Still Water Wellness Group. “Our Couples Rehab in Lake Forest is specially designed to provide a shared space of healing, where couples can grow together through structured therapy, mutual support, and shared commitment to sobriety.”

The launch of this program comes at a crucial time when many are looking to make significant life changes and resolutions for the new year. "As 2025 begins, we invite couples to take a transformative journey with us, where they can leave behind the struggles of the past year and step into a future free from addiction," added Kreider.

This holiday season, give yourself or a loved one the gift of wellness with Still Water Wellness Group. Starting now means entering the New Year with clarity, balance, and a renewed sense of purpose.
