

Ed Bernstein Injury Lawyers and KTNV Celebrate Successful Renovations at St. Jude's Ranch for Children

Ed Bernstein Injury Lawyers, alongside KTNV's 13 Connects, celebrated the completion of room renovations at St. Jude's Ranch for Children in Boulder City, NV.

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES,
December 25, 2024 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Ed Bernstein Injury Lawyers, in collaboration with KTNV's 13 Connects initiative, is proud to announce the successful completion of room renovations at St. Jude's Ranch for Children in Boulder City, NV. The newly renovated spaces were unveiled at a special event on December 17, 2024, marking the culmination of months of collaborative effort by community partners, including Subaru and America's First Credit Union.

The renovations, which included the installation of vibrant murals and the transformation of living spaces, were designed to provide foster children with a nurturing, inspiring environment. The project was funded in part by KTNV's 13 Days & Knights of Giving campaign and reflects the ongoing commitment of all partners to support children in need.

"We are incredibly proud to have been a part of this project," said Ed Bernstein, founder of Ed Bernstein Injury Lawyers. "These renovations go beyond just enhancing physical spaces – they help create an environment where children can heal, grow, and find inspiration. At Ed Bernstein Injury Lawyers, we are deeply committed to supporting initiatives that make a meaningful difference in the lives of children and families in our community."

The renovated area, which serves children ages 9-13, now features a welcoming lounge and study space that provides a comfortable and safe place for learning, relaxation, and personal growth. The upgrades are part of a larger effort to ensure that children at St. Jude's Ranch have the care, resources, and environment they need to thrive.
