

Dam Da by Ann Dinh Wins Iron A' Design Award in Kitchenware and Horeca Category

Innovative ceramic set that embeds recipe details and serves as a culinary bridge to heritage honored in prestigious design competition.

COMO, CO, ITALY, December 25, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Design Award, a highly respected and well-recognized accolade in the field of kitchenware design, has announced Dam Da by Ann Dinh as a winner of the Iron A' Design Award in the Bakeware, Tableware, Drinkware and Cookware Design category. This prestigious recognition highlights the innovative design and cultural significance of the Dam Da ceramic set within the kitchenware industry.

Dam Da aligns with current trends in the kitchenware industry, addressing the need for products that combine functionality, cultural heritage, and innovative design. By embedding recipe details and measurements directly into the ceramic pieces, Dam Da offers a practical solution for preserving and sharing family recipes across generations. This unique approach advances kitchenware design standards and provides tangible benefits for users seeking to maintain culinary traditions.

The award-winning Dam Da ceramic set stands out in the market through its distinctive features and thoughtful design. Each piece in the set communicates specific ingredients and approximate measurements through embedded graphics and labeling in both Vietnamese and English. The set's overall framework can be adapted to different variations of recipes, dishes, and cultures, showcasing its versatility. The use of crackle glaze adds a subtle indication of amounts as the pieces age, enhancing the set's functionality.
