The comprehensive weight loss program includes a methodical approach that start by assessing individuals based on their unique needs, current lifestyle patterns, and weight loss objectives. Based on their individualized needs, a customized plan is created that includes:

- Tailored Nutrition: Certified nutritionists create meal plans that suit your needs, lifestyle, and budget and provide optimal nourishment.
- Exercise Guidance: Personal fitness routines are created to complement individual weight loss goals.
- Behavioral Support: Experts address habits and behaviors that impact weight management.
- Health Condition Management: Expert support is offered to manage concerns like high blood pressure, high cholesterol, and more.

Dr. Mona also offers Telemedicine support services to busy professionals, chronic condition patients, elderly people, and to patients living in remote areas. The telemedicine platform leverages audio and video modalities to ensure seamless and effective consultations.

Backed by an expert team of certified nutritionists and led by board-certified weight loss expert, Dr. Mona Lala, the program stands apart from similar other services available in the market.
