Dr. Tchelebi - FUE Hair Restoration

Hair loss affects millions of people, impacting their self-confidence and overall quality of life. NeoGraft®, an FDA-cleared, minimally invasive hair-restoration technology, has revolutionized the field by offering a more comfortable and effective alternative to traditional hair-restoration methods. Utilizing advanced follicular unit extraction \(FUE\), NeoGraft® gently harvests and implants individual hair follicles to ensure precise placement and natural growth patterns.

NeoGraft®'s advanced technology offers a safe and effective treatment for hair loss with no linear scar and minimal downtime. NeoGraft® works with a patient's natural hair growth cycle to regrow hair and provide natural-looking results. Park Avenue Medical Spa is thrilled to offer this innovative treatment.

Dr. Tchelebi's extensive experience in aesthetic medicine and her dedication to personalized care set her apart. She works closely with each patient to develop a tailored treatment plan, which helps ensure optimal results that enhance the patient's natural beauty and restore confidence.

Park Avenue Medical Spa offers a holistic approach that enhances all aspects of beauty in order to enhance our clients' total well-being."
