

Meta, H-E-B, Walmart Back Black Chamber's AI and Innovation Initiative during Black History Month

This Black History Month, reshape the future of entrepreneurship with the power of AI & innovation!

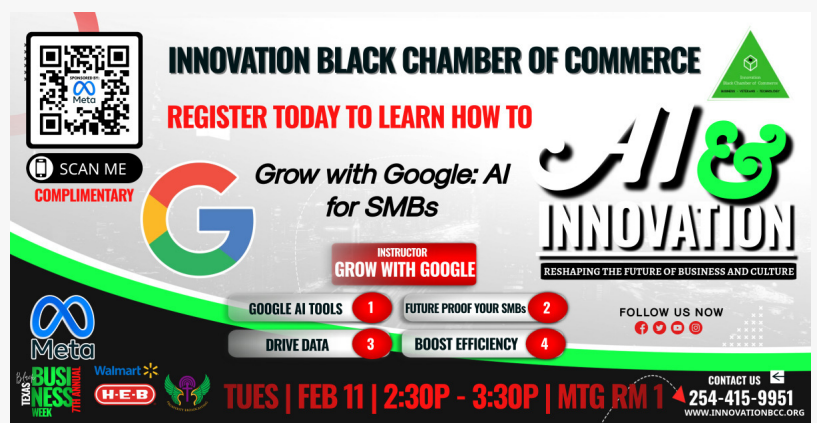

KILLEEN, TX, UNITED STATES, January 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Innovation Black Chamber of Commerce (IBCC) will host its 7th Annual Business Week from February 10-13, 2025, at the Killeen Civic and Conference Center. This year's event, themed "Reshaping the Future with AI & Innovation," will focus on the transformative potential of artificial intelligence across industries, with a particular emphasis on empowering Black-owned businesses.

The event will feature a variety of workshops, presentations, and networking opportunities designed to educate attendees about the latest AI technologies and their applications in business. Key sessions include:

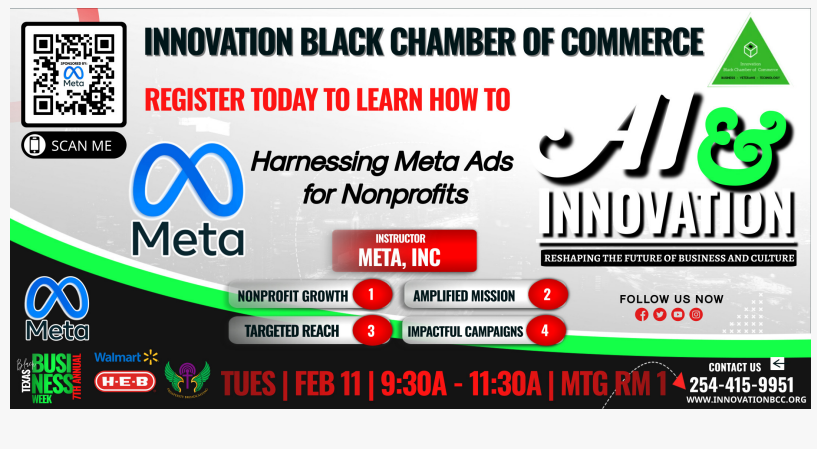

- AI for Business Growth: Learn how to leverage AI tools for marketing, customer service, and operations.
- AI and the Future of Work: Explore AI's impact on the workforce and the skills needed to succeed in an AI-driven economy.
- Ethical Considerations in AI: Discuss
