

Marc Biala Debuts Emotive and Soulful Ballad “Been Everywhere but Me”

AUSTIN, TX, UNITED STATES, January 1, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Austin-based singer-songwriter Marc Biala has unveiled his latest heartfelt ballad, “Been Everywhere but Me.” With its emotive storytelling and soulful delivery, the song delves into the universal struggle of living up to societal and familial expectations while yearning to embrace one’s true self. Balancing polished yet natural production, “Been Everywhere but Me” creates an intimate and deeply moving listening experience. Marc’s rich tenor vocals shine with both strength and vulnerability, capturing the raw emotional core of the song and drawing listeners into its powerful message.

“This song is about being real,” Marc shares. “I wanted it to feel authentic—less about perfection and more about honesty. It’s a reflection of the moment you stop trying to live for others and start living for yourself. For me, this is one of the most personal and meaningful songs I’ve written.”
